Travel and Expense Policy, version 2.0

Arka Fintech Services. Effective 1 April 2026. Owner: Finance.

1 Purpose

This policy sets the rules for business travel and for claiming expenses. It applies to every employee and contractor of Arka Fintech Services who travels for work.

2 Scope

The policy covers travel booked for a client, a project or an internal meeting. Personal travel added to a business trip is paid by the employee.

3 General rules

- Book travel through the company travel desk.
- Choose the lowest fare that fits the business need.
- Charge every trip to a project code, for example P-104.

A manager approves every trip before it is booked.

4 Travel

4.1 Flights

Book economy class for flights under 6 hours. Business class needs approval from a director.

4.2 Per diem

The per diem covers meals and local travel for each full day away from the home city.

City	Per diem (₹ a day)
Mumbai	2,000
Delhi	1,800
Bengaluru	1,800
Other cities	1,200

4.3 Hotels

Stay in a hotel from the approved list. A hotel outside the list needs approval from the travel desk.

4.4 Claims

Submit a claim within 30 days of the end of the trip.

4.5 Overruns

Travel spend above 100% of a project's approved travel budget needs written approval from the CFO before more travel is booked. The project owner explains the overrun in the monthly review.

5 Expenses

5.1 Receipts

Attach a receipt for every item over ₹500. A claim without receipts is returned.

5.2 Items that are not paid

- Alcohol, fines and personal entertainment.
- Travel insurance bought outside the travel desk.
